

THE LONG AGONY ENDED.

THE PRESIDENT ANNOUNCES THE INTER-STATE COMMERCE COMMISSIONERS.

Some Appointments Will Create Surprise—Parties Not Known as Aplicants—Who the Men Are—The Board Will Elect Its Own Chairman.

Figure 1. Mr. Cooley, of Michigan, for the term of six years; William R. Morrison, of Illinois, for the term of five years; August Schoenmaker, of New York, for the term of four years; Aldace F. Walker, of Vermont, for the term of three years; and John Bragg, of Alabama, for the term of two years.

The fact that Mr. Cooley's name has been listed does not necessarily indicate that he will be chairman of the commission, but must elect his own chairman. The following are the names of the other four men composing the commission, excluding ex Representative Morrison, who has since died. They are generally known and need no description:

removed to Michigan. In 1843, where he has since resided. In 1857 he was elected coadjutor of the state laws, and, in 1858, reported to the supreme court. In 1859 he was chosen by the regents as commissioner to organize the law department of the University of Michigan, and he has ever since been connected with it. In 1864 he was elected justice of the supreme court, and was re-elected in 1869 and in 1877. He was nominated by the Republicans for reelection in 1885, and was defeated. Mr. Cooley

Aldere Walker is a Vermont lawyer about 44 years old—a Republican in politics, who studied law with Senator Edmunds, served as a colonel in the United States army, and has since practiced law at Rutland. In the Vermont senate he has taken a leading part in framing legislation to solve the railway problem, and has given much study to the question.

He was born in Ulster county, N. Y., March 2, 1828, and is a lawyer in active practice. He has always been a Democrat in politics. He has been county judge of his county, and the candidate of his party for supreme court judge. He was a state senator during Gov. Tilden's term as governor, and was one of the leaders in the legislature on whom Mr. Tilden relied to carry out his reform measures. He torney general of New York state in 1874 and 1879, succeeding Mr. Fairchild, the present Acting Secretary of the Treasury. In 1876 he was presented by the anti-Tammany delegation from New York to the Democratic state convention as their candidate for governor, and was a delegate to the Democratic national convention in 1880 and 1884, and also to the Chicago convention in 1884.

Walter L. Bragg was born in Alabama in 1838, but resided in Arkansas from 1855 until 1861. He was educated at Harvard University and Cambridge Law School, and practiced law in Arkansas for some years.

years and has served as national delegate, presidential elector, and member of Democratic national committee. In 1911 he was made president of the Alabama state railroad commission and served that position four years, during which time many important questions arising between the state and the railroads were settled.

MRS. CLEVELAND OUT DRIVE
Giving the Buffalo Ladies a Chance
See the City.

It was a quiet day at the white house yesterday.

Secretary Whitney was absent from Cabinet meeting, as he was opening for the steel cruisers at the hour of noon.

were all present, Mr. Fairchild representing the Treasury Department. The deliberations lasted two hours. The President

Yates Sterling, of the U. S. N.

Baron Von Zedtwitz returned yesterday from his few days' absence in New York.

Mr. and Mrs. Clarence P. Dresser held a pleasant reception in their private room at the National Hotel. They were assisted in receiving their many friends by Mrs. the Misses Dresser, of Chicago, the mother of the bride.

the front and bodice of moire, elaborately trimmed with pearl passamenterie and ornaments, and long loops of ribbon. bodice was edged with pearl clusters and pendants. Coffee, cake, and confectionery were served in the second drawing room. Mrs. Clarence Dresser had a most Handling Bad Horses.

Prof. O. R. Gleason gave another of very interesting exhibitions at the Skating Rink, on E street, last night. There were Next he drove his trick horse to a wall without a lead line and was then taken in hand, much worse horse than the first one stated upon. He did not throw this horse as he did the first one, but used the straps or appliances as on the first horse. He was easily subdued, but not as quick as the first. The exhibition as a whole

The following are the horses that w handled this evening by Professor Gle A. Jacobson's bolter, plunger, and a L. Mark's very bad kicker; W. Cham plunger, shyer, and runaway; J. Waugh's horse, afraid of a buffalo and Professor Gleason's celebrated J

Assaulted and Robbed.
August Lieb, was knocked down and robbed at 2 o'clock this morning, by white men, at Tenth and B streets. Lieb also drew a pistol on him.

Special Officer Tom Young to his and the officers succeeded in arresting Richard Hudson and James Littleton. Stolen money was found on Hudson, third party escaped.

New York Has Enough Saloons

has decided that this city has a surplus of saloons and refuse to issue any license which will increase the number.

284